

Medical Report

Patient Name: John Doe

Age: 45

Gender: Male

Chief Complaint:

The patient presents with persistent fever, cough, and shortness of breath for the past 5 days.

Medical History:

The patient has a history of hypertension and mild asthma.

Diagnosis:

Symptoms indicate a possible respiratory infection, likely pneumonia.

Treatment Plan:

Prescribed antibiotics, rest, and hydration. Follow-up recommended in 7 days.